When building a successful portfolio.

Profits can be generated by minimizing exposure to risk by buying and selling discounted prime securities through a well-known method called arbitrage which utilizes arrangements to place buyers under contract at predetermined prices.

The regulated trade partners to which we have access either directly or indirectly trade discounted prime securities using a pre-sold Arbitrage strategy. Arbitrage utilizes arrangements to place buyers under contract at predetermined prices.

This means that a licensed trader, cannot purchase a security unless a buyer and price have already been agreed and contracted. This fund a mentally removes speculation from a transaction and consequently protect principal investment capital.

By exploiting the difference in the buying and selling price, pre-determines the generation of profit. Our regulated trade partners perform these Arbitrage led trades at sufficient volume and frequency to enable a regular and high profit yield. This enables IBSP to subsequently provide our investors with a low risk, high yield return of minimum 13.25% per annum.
